We live in a divisive and polarizing culture, which erodes respect and understanding for someone or something that is different than our own experience. The purpose of this interfaith dialogue is to increase our understanding of and respect for other religions, as we hear from three different faiths: Christian, Jewish and Islam. As we welcome them, we hope to break down barriers that divide and discover common ground.

PARTNERS: Pax Christi Southeastern SD Chapter; Sioux Falls Multi-Cultural Center, Presentation Sisters' Caminando Juntos; Presenters Rev. Pat Hammond (Christian), DaNiel Wood (Jewish) and Unconfirmed (Muslim)
