In a couple of weeks, we will celebrate the Feast of All Saints, on November 1st. One of the logos for Presentation College is: “The World Needs More Saints”. My thoughts on that is “how true!” The world definitely needs more saints, not just a ‘Presentation Saint’, but a saint for our world. I’m hoping that you are working on that every day of your life. Perhaps if we had more saints in this world, the world would all be more loving and caring to each other. I know that our Admission’s Department is working to get more Saints for Presentation, and perhaps you are helping with that in any way you can. A few weeks ago, I took part in a “Women on the Prairie Retreat”, and one of the things that touched me was: “Once you see a need and respond to it, it becomes God’s work.” Hence, when we see the need for more saints and try to work on it, God begins to work on that need with you.

So, God and we are working on the needs together. What needs do you see in this world, in our state, our homes, and our lives? As you see the needs and strive to work on them, God will help you with those needs. Our classes often give us opportunities to see and strive to be better, our sports programs bring out the competitive nature in us, and provides an enjoyable experience as well. Talk to God about the needs you see, and ask Him to help you. Ask him to bless your family members, those whom you seldom see, but those you think may need God’s help. Here are some words I found in Psalm 33 not long ago: “The eyes of the Lord are on those who fear him.” I believe these words seem to fit nearly everything -- our needs, the needs of our family, and all of our desires.

May God continue to guide you in all your needs!
