

March 4, 2021

May your Lenten Season be a blessed one for all of you.

As I mentioned in my "Lighting the Way" last week, we Sisters all moved from our beautiful convent near the College to another smaller building close to Mother Joseph Manor. I arrived into my new home on Thursday. On Saturday evening, we all went back to Presentation Heights for our Sunday Mass. What struck me during Mass were the words spoken by Peter in the Gospel (Mk. 9:2-10): "Lord, it is good for us to be here." Jesus had lead the three disciples up a mountain by themselves. As I listened to the Gospel & homily, I thought those words seemed to fit me! Jesus had lead our community to move to a smaller building away from the College. I know I will miss being near the College, but as the evening went on we participated in a "Black & White Ball" with a meal provided by the College. That whole evening, Peter's words from the Gospel seemed to fit me. Yes, Lord, it is good for us to be here. We will miss the College, but I trust that God will lead us as he always does.

As I prayed the readings for that Mass on Sunday, I was also struck by the second reading (Rom. 8:31) - "If God is on our side who can be against us?" Think about that. We know that God is on our side, so we need not worry about who might be against us. Christ willingly endured death for all of us, even those who cried out for him to be crucified. We have no reason to fear because God is for us! Take time throughout the week to recognize when God has been for you.

I found a paper when I was packing entitled: "God's Yellow Pages". It has a list of scripture passages to read when you have a special need. Here are a few you might want to think about: "Where to look when you are afraid: Ps. 34:4, Mt. 10:28, Heb.13:5". So the next time you feel afraid, try reading one of those passages.

May God bless all of you!

Sister Marilyn Dunn, PBVM (smarilyn.dunn@presentation.edu)
Presentation College, Telephone: (605-380-7691)

Assistant in Student Affairs & Mission

