Blessings to you during this holy Easter Season! I'm hoping that you all were able to get to the Easter Celebrations without a lot of problems. All of us Sisters attended the Holy Week Services at Presentation Heights, and Father Sheehan was our celebrant. God was good!

As I continue to get settled into my new home here, I found a framed message from a Presentation Sister in Australia quoting Nano Nagle, which I love:

"Take down your lantern from its niche and go out. You may not dwell in firelight certainties, secure from drifting fog of doubt and fear. You cannot build yourself confining walls and say: 'Thus far, and thus far shall I walk. These things shall I do and nothing more.' Go out! For need calls loudly in the winding lanes, and you must seek Christ there. Your pilgrim heart shall urge still you one pace beyond, -- and Love shall be your lantern flame."

I believe that our foundress, Nano Nagle, probably said words like these herself many times. She trusted in God to lead her – wherever she went. It was the needs of the people that led Nano to wherever she went. Inside our front entrance of our new home, it tells us that Nano taught children during the daytime, and the children told her about the people they knew that were sick and lonely. Hence, Nano would go out at night with a lantern to visit the poor and lonely. What is God calling you to do? Be willing to follow wherever God leads you.

May God continue to guide and bless us throughout this Holy Season.
