Many of our Sisters have made a retreat recently. God was very good to me – even though it was different than what I had expected. Sometimes we have special desires (or expectations), and God leads us differently than we expect. This year we had one priest and one Sister who lead our retreat -- usually we have just one person leading our retreat. I had known the Sister and was happy that she would be part of the team, but I discovered that I had remembered meeting that priest before, too. They both spoke on the topic for the day, and each shared from their own vantage point. I found that each gave me just what God wanted me to hear.

Next week a couple of my cousins plan to come visit me from California. I look forward to seeing & meeting them. Actually, I have never met them before, but I knew their mothers very well. Now, I look forward to meeting these two cousins of mine – and maybe I'll have some more surprises. God is good to us that way!

Every once in a while, I find that God gives me a surprise like that. Earlier today, one of the students that I had taught years ago called me on the phone. I had met him years ago when I first came back to Presentation, then this morning he called me again to ask me how I was doing. So, to get a call from him again today was a surprise. Maybe the Lord, knew we both needed to hear each other's voice again. Is there any-one in your life, that God wants you to touch base with again??

God bless each of you, and have a wonderful school year!
