

January 20, 2022

I'm hoping that these first two weeks of 'on-line classes' have been going well for all of you. I'm sure that you will be looking forward to being able to attend classes in-person again as soon as possible. Your instructors are hoping for that also. As I mentioned last week, you probably did not expect that you would spend the first couple of weeks of classes like you did. Let us pray that classes will soon be back-to-normal for everyone.

I will be having Cataract Surgery soon, so I beg you to pray that all goes well for me. Some people have told me that kind of surgery -- is like a 'piece of cake', so I'm hoping that all will go well. Let us continue to pray for each other.

This week (Jan.18-25) will be observed as a Week for Christian Unity. On the night of Jesus' Last Super, he was not simply trying to mend the cracks like in a mirror. He went below the surface of our lives and sought to bring all of broken humanity into communion with God. Jesus' goal excluded no one -- all of humanity was meant to image God. Let's all work at doing that this week -- imaging God in our lives. As we journey through this week or year, can we avoid judging others by their appearances? Can we look beyond the surface and into their hearts? Let's attempt to do that as much as we can. If we do, God will guide us and we will become more 'God-like'.

God bless all of you!
