

Friday of the Third Week of Advent

In today's gospel Jesus says: "John (the Baptist) was a burning and shining lamp, and for a while you were content to rejoice in his light." (John 5:35)

This Advent it may be good for us to look at who have been the shining lamps in our lives. How did they shine? Maybe it was by their faith, or by their works or maybe by their patience and love and acceptance of others. However their light shone for us, hopefully it made a difference in our lives. A good question now to ask ourselves is how is my light shining for other people?
