

Thank You, Partners

We are grateful to the donors listed in this annual report, as well as the individuals who prefer to remain anonymous, for their partnership over the past year. The efforts of many coming together make it possible to do what none of us could do alone. It is through your prayerful and financial support that we are able to continue our work for justice and ease the burdens that others bear, inspiring hope for a brighter future.

It is our intention that this report accurately reflects the names of our donors from June 1, 2024 to May 31, 2025. We also remember in our prayers those whose names are marked with a cross (†) as they are our partners who are deceased.

We have established style guidelines to ensure consistency. If there is an error with your name, please let us know using the contact information listed on the back of this report.

Since the founding of the Congregation in 1775,
education has been at the heart of each of our ministries. From teaching children during the time of Irish penal laws, Foundress Nano Nagle's unshakable conviction in the power of education has endured and continues to guide
Presentation Sisters across the world today.

Education is the thread that runs through every Presentation ministry and prepares people to meet life's challenges with courage and hope. This legacy continues to thrive today as Presentation People carry forward the vision and foundation Nano set forth generations ago.

We invite you to read about three partner ministries and their continuing legacy of education.

Preserving the Legacy of Women Religious in the United States

Established in 2022, the Women Religious Archives Collaborative (WRAC) located in Cleveland, OH, works to support religious congregations in preserving their archives. They assist communities in preserving, protecting, and making accessible their historical records and archives for future generations to understand religious life and for professional research.

Our congregation, along with several others in the region, has partnered with WRAC to preserve our historical archives and this past year, our archival collection was safely transferred to WRAC's care. Through their efforts, collections are being digitized and will be more widely available, while also creating dedicated space for researchers to engage with these materials.

Construction is underway on a permanent facility for WRAC, with completion expected in late Spring 2027. Until then, collections are being securely housed in a temperature-controlled storage facility.

If you would like to learn more about WRAC, we invite you to subscribe to their newsletter:

IMPACT AT A GLANCE

To date, 44 religious institutions from across the US and Canada have chosen WRAC to house their archival collections; they anticipate being able to house up to 75 collections.

WRAC's capital campaign has raised $21 million towards a projected $24 million goal. WRAC continues to seek donors and friends interested in supporting this innovative project.
